

I am opposed to authorizing Broadband Over Power Line due to the significant interference to current users of the radio spectrum 1 - 30 MHz. Experience in Europe shows the interference problem. Experience in the US with cable TV, cable modems, and wireless range "extenders" have shown interference problems. Other means of providing access are available without the interference problem of Broadband Over Power Line.